O. C. FOWNING, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

TELEGRAPHIC SPARKS!

Grant objects to having a big reception.

The English Parliament is wrestling with the silver question.

It looks as if the Pacific Mail will have to be drawn off, without the assistance of subsidy.

Nicholas Dickman fell 1,300 feet down the Savage shaft yesterday and was dashed to pieces.

The Workingmen have nominated Beerstecher for Railroad Commissioner and M. C. Hoagland for member of the State Board of Equalization.

Because the New Constitution forbids the C. P. R. R. from making contracts with rival roads, it cannot join the U. P. in an agreement to continue the contract with the Pacific Mail.

Notwithstanding the "hard times" and the scarcity of money complained of everywhere, the theatrical season of 1878-79, just closed was one of the most profitable that the country has seen for many years past. The profits of some of the best known stars and managers are stated at follows: Mary Anderson, $85,000; Dion Boucicault, 65,000; Lawrence Barrett, 8,000; Fanny Davenport, 30,000; J. K. Emmet, 25,000; W. J. Florence, 18,000; J. H. Haverly $130,000; Harrigan & Hart, 40,000; John McCullough, 25,000; Modjeska, 20,000; Col. Mapleson, 30,000; A. M. Palmer, 32,000; John T. Raymond, 12,000; J. Sargent, 30,000.

The Interior Department has accepted the map of the amended route of the Northern Pacific Railroad through Washington Territory, and as a consequence, millions of acres which for a number of years has been withdrawn for the benefit of the railroad, will be restored to the public lands. The number of acres within the forty-mile grant limits of the amended and shorter route to Puget Sound will be 4,000,000 less than on the old circular route.

Immigration promises to be larger this year than last. Two thousand and twenty-six immigrants were landed at New York on Saturday and Monday; of which number 909 were English; 607 Scotch; 503 German and other nationalities. About one-third intend to purchase land in the North-Western States, and left New York for the prairie regions soon after landing.

Massachusetts partisan newspapers assure us that General Butler will again be a candidate for Governor of that State next November. It is foreshadowed that he desires the regular Democratic nomination; but if he fails in that, will run as an independent candidate. When, General!

CHEAP PRICES IN VERMONT.—The Vergennes Vermonter quotes its market as follows: Butter, 8 to 14c; eggs, 8c; veal calves, 3 to 4c; hay, 5 to 7 per ton; pork, dressed, 4c; beef, 4 to 5.

That the President will veto the Judicial Appropriation bill is a foregone conclusion; and the Democrats are puzzled as to what is to be done after that event.

In 1876 the combined capital of the Rothschilds was estimated by good authority to be $3,430,000,000, an amount about equal to the entire funded debt of Great Britain.

The Virginia folks don't want the Governor to order the military companies to Carson on the 4th. They propose to celebrate at home.

An assessment of 50 cents per share has been levied on the stock of Leopold Mining Company. The corporation operates in Tuscarora District.

The Capitol Commissioners have ordered a new starry banner from Frisco for the Capitol building.

The eruption of Vesuvius has commenced. It has so far been slight, but is gradually increasing.

One hundred copies of "Sagebrush Leaves" have been subscribed for in Eureka, and ninety in Tuscarora.

The sagebrush supply in Independence valley will be exhausted during the present season.

Butler is throwing bricks in all the Massachusetts Democratic camps.

THE FIRST MINING ON THE COMSTOCK.

Dick Ogden, an early Comstock miner, has been making a speech before the New York Bullion Club. He revived some reminiscences that are worth reproducing. The Graphic reports him as follows:

He had been connected with the Comstock mines, having organized the Ophir Company and taken out the first ore ever taken from the mine. The first thirty tons brought to San Francisco was literally an elephant on the hands of the company, as they had no means of ascertaining its value and working it. A few gentlemen from Freiberg, Germany, showed themselves willing to smelt the ore. They had some assays which gave at the rate of 5,000 to the ton, but the company got only 1,500 a ton for ore worth 5,000. That was the beginning in fact of all mining on the Comstock lode. The company's stock consisted of twelve shares at $300 each. The ore was peddled from Dan to Beersheba. The mine paid very largely, and had the same economy been practiced which is now in vogue, it would have proved even more valuable. This applies also to the early history of the other Comstock mines. The gold was literally thrown away. Not more than from 40 to 50 per cent of the ore was realized. Among the luxuries at the Gould & Curry mine was a duck pond that cost 10,000. In it were three miserable ducks. A mill was erected at great cost. It proved worthless and had to be pulled down. The mines were really exhausted and wasted before they learned how to work them. People are glad now, the speaker continued, to get mines which then were looked upon as worthless.

WHAT ARE THE PROFITS?

This is the absorbing point that is of chief interest in every business transaction. By the combination system of operating in stocks, Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., unite the orders of thousands of patrons, in various sums, into one immense amount, and operate them as a mighty whole, thus obtaining all the advantages of the largest capitalists and best skill. Profits are distributed pro rata among shareholders every month. In this way large gains are secured in short periods, and capital from $10 to $15 to $50,000 can be used with equal success $20 will make $100 in 30 days. $150 will pay $1,500 profit of 10 per cent. on the stock, and so on, according to the market. A citizen of Troy, made $315 75 on an investment of $50. Many customers are doing better. The new circular has "two unerring rules for success," and full details so that any one can operate profitably. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y.

Hawkeye: The editor of a Tennessee paper fell in love with some unknown poetess who had written poetry for his paper for nearly three years. She also wrote about "a cry in the night" and "a nameless pain," and "sleeping under the willows" and the "ceaseless song" and all kinds of pining away stuff, so at last the stricken editor got a pa—that is, he bought a ticket and went to the town where she lived, dreaming all the way of the pale brow and the star lit eyes and the pleading lips of the beautiful girl who didn't seem to have anything particular to love her and one thing and another, and when he got there, there was a woman forty three years old, weighing 136 pounds, with red hair and twelve children. He saw it all. "The willows" were only the willow crib, "the cry in the night" was the baby and "the nameless pain" was the child's. He saw, and remembered and understood, and he never publishes any original poetry now.

Stabbing Affray.
About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon A. L. Hurd and Thomas Barnett, two draymen, had a quarrel in the Arcade Hotel, in which Hurd was stabbed. We have interviewed the parties in the case and ascertained these particulars: Fannon & Hurd had hauled Updike & Clark's freight for them, a regular agreement seeming to have existed to that effect. Yesterday Barnett saw some freight for this firm on the platform and asked Clark if he should haul it. Permission was given and he did it. Shortly after Hurd saw Updike, who said he had not authorized Barnett to do the work. At 3 o'clock Hurd met Barnett at the Arcade Hotel, and asked him what he meant by taking away his hauling, and if he did it any more he would make it hot for him. Hurd says Barnett returned a saucy answer, which Barnett denies, and he then struck him, knocking him down. The carpenter then sprang in and held Hurd, who is a very large man, intending to stop any further trouble. Barnett says he then attempted to leave the saloon, but that Hurd made at him again, (this Hurd denies) whereupon Tom opened a large pocket knife and stabbed him, the blade entering the back to the right of the spine, in the neighborhood of the right kidney. Hurd immediately started for home, but found himself growing weak from loss of blood. Dr. Bergman was called, and says it is a very serious wound, but he has hopes of recovery. When we saw the wounded man he was resting easy, though his right side and leg were numb. Barnett was arrested, but gave bonds in the sum of $500 for appearance. At our last advices last evening Mr. Hurd was resting easy, though the wound was beginning to cause him considerable pain.

That Tent Show.
Under the above heading the Nevada Transcript shows up "The circus," which is billed to give a performance here next Tuesday evening. It says:
A small sized show in a small sized tent, traveling under the comprehensive and imposing title of The New American and Great Arabian Al-liance, held forth in a lot on Boulder street Friday and Monday evenings to audiences composed largely of small boys, Heathen Chinese, and white folks who didn't have any other method of killing time. There were some five or six actors in the combination. Each time they appeared in the miniature ring (and their visits were not like angels, few and far between, for there were not enough of them to fill in the evening respectfully) they changed their names. The performances consisted of common feats of tumbling, balancing, etc., commonly performed. The clown—who presented himself in four or five different capacities, from a Chilean fun pocker to a Bedouin Arab juggler—comported himself as though his sweet heart had just soured on him. Taken all in all, the show was not worthy of patronage at any price.

Masonic Festivities.
The hall of Reno Chapter F. & A. M. was the scene of great rejoicing last night between the members of that lodge, and the visitors from the Grand Chapter. After the usual greetings at the lodge room, a collation was partaken of by all at Chamberlain's, the new dining room being especially prepared for the occasion. It was beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers, and the evergreens were also worked into beautiful emblems of the order, such as the keystone, square and compass, "G" and the initials of the Chapter. All of these were nicely adorned with flowers, making the effect very pleasing. Of course the table groined with nice eatables—chickens, hams, etc., cake of all kinds, fruits of all kinds, etc.

Transfers.
The following real estate transfers have been recorded since June 1st:
Charles Crocker to B. F. Leete, lots 11 and 12 in block 5, Western Addition, $350.
A. C. Hobart, to Elmer E. Hobart, east 85 feet of lots 4, 5, 6—block 2 in Lake's Addition, consideration $5.
W. R. Chamberlain to Myron C. Lake, west half of lots 6 and 7 in block S. $500.
Charles Crocker to G. W. Small, lot 9 block 5 Western Addition, $150.

Assessment Maps.
Deputy Assessor Young is busy drawing off small maps of blocks in town, for use in assessing. They are to be placed in a book form of convenient size. When an assessment is made the owner and assessment is to be placed in leadpencil upon the tract. Next year the maps can be erased and the map ready for use again. He will assess Reno when he finishes the map.

Opens Monday.
D. McFarland will throw the Arcade open to the public on Monday next. It has been handsomely fitted up. In fact Dave has displayed good taste in all the appointments. No doubt a crowd will assist to open it "in shape."
The bath house of Coleman & Peck-ner is the best in the State. Try them and be convinced.

Runaway.
Thursday evening a son of L. W. Lee, was riding in a buggy after a long drive, the young horse was frightened by Indians by the roadside near Lake's ranch, and ran away. McGee was thrown out and bruised, but the boy kept his seat for four miles and was not thrown out until the buggy struck one of the iron pillars of the bridge, escaping with slight injury.

"Pinafore."
The Hyer Sisters will appear at Kimball's Hall on the 20th in the great musical drama of "Pinafore." This is the latest theatrical sensation, and we know our theater-goers are anxious to see it. For further particulars and cast we refer our readers to the advertisement.

TALK IS CHEAP.—And so are fine clothing, boots, shoes, and gentlemen's and boys' fine furnishing goods, if you go to the right place to get them. This is a mighty important point, for some people who assert that they sell cheap do nothing of the kind. I do not boast when I say that I defy competition in prices in anything in my line. Besides this I have only one price. I have no preferred customers. Everybody is treated alike at my establishment. My stock is the largest and most complete ever offered in any part of this State. Everything I have is new. No old, musty and out-of-date goods can be found on my shelves. I receive daily by rail and express the latest and best goods, which are obtained at first hand and sold at prices below those now prevailing in New York and Chicago. Let the people come and judge of my prices and examine my stock before going into those humbugging, Cheap John shops, in which they drum into the ear of the customer that they sell at cost and even below cost. Anybody with common sense must know that they lie. No store-keeper sells goods for the fun of the thing. I make a profit on everything I sell, as every honest merchant does, and don't print foolish falsehoods in the vain hope of deceiving the public. One must make a profit to live. I particularly call attention to my full stock of fancy underwear, such as is kept nowhere else in Reno. This class of goods forms one of my specialties. Remember the place. INSURANCE.—We desire to say to our insurance patrons and owners of property generally that we have secured the services of Mr. T. B. Camp, a professional insurance man who has had several years practical experience in the business and is thoroughly posted in all its details. He will give his entire time and attention to the business of insurance, thus securing care and skill in the writing of policies, so as to properly cover the risks, which is of great importance, as many sufferers by the late fire may recall, as it might have saved them hundreds of dollars in the adjustment of a loss. We shall issue policies and adjust losses at our office.

A Matter of Interest to Travelers.—Tourists, emigrants and mariners find that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a medicinal safeguard against unhealthy influences, upon which they can implicitly rely, since it prevents the effects that an unhealthy climate, vitiated atmosphere, unaccustomed or unwholesome diet, bad water, or other conditions unfavorable to health, would otherwise produce. On long voyages, or journeys by land in latitudes adjacent to the equator, it is especially useful as a preventative of the febrile complaints and disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, which are apt to attack natives of the temperate zones sojourning or traveling in such regions, and is an excellent protection against the influence of extreme cold, sudden changes of temperature, exposure to damp or extreme fatigue. It not only prevents intermittent and remittent fever, and other diseases of a malarial type, but eradicates them, a fact which had been notorious for years past in North and South America, Mexico, the West Indies, Australia and other countries.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuation of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits aropy sediment will often be found and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpy appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito urinary organs.
